VANDERBILT CUP RACE TODAY

MINEOLA, L. I., Sept. 30.—The Vanderbilt cup race, restored to its pristine glory by the course of the time-honored accomplishment of horns of ten thousand automobiles churning through sleeping villages.

Although the six-hour thrill provided by the race itself will not begin until daylight, the heft began soon after the theaters had released their audiences and continued throughout the night.

From their anchorages outside of Broadway restaurants, big cars, little cars and sightseeing vans loaded down with human freight puffed, snorted and hiccoughed their way toward the objective point.

Many other persons came by train, on foot and in farm wagons and rigs. These found already on the course the inevitable hawkers of frankfurters, of coffee and sandwiches and here and there a poor, forlorn and bewildered deputy sheriff making futile efforts to curb the get-rich-quick proclivities of the vendors.

The race, which starts at dawn, is a triple event, consisting of the Vanderbilt cup contest, in which 31 cars are to circle the course 22 times;

the Wheatley Hills contest, in which 9 cars are to cover the course 15 times, and the Massapequa contest, in which 6 cars must make the circuit ten times.

DOES NOT LIKE THE TARIFF PLANK

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Bringing with him his son-in-law, Representative Longworth of Cincinnati, Colonel Roosevelt returned to New York by automobile late this afternoon.

An attack on Colonel Roosevelt that appeared today in the Des Moines News, which is said to be Senator Cummins' personal organ, brought forth no comment from the colonel beyond the statement that he had heard of it.

It is known, however, that he regards the New York state platform of 1912 as an expression of his own ideas, but rather as a reflection of the views of the party.

Does Not Like Tariff Plank.

Friends of Roosevelt who were with him at Saratoga said today that he was not pleased with the tariff plank. His position in regard to the tariff law was made clear in his speech as temporary chairman, and Colonel Roosevelt told his friends that he did not care to go further than that in endorsing the law.

Southern Trip Begins Oct. 6.
Colonel Roosevelt's ten days' tour through the south and southwest will begin Oct. 6. He will leave New York in a private car at 3:25 p. m. The first stop will be at Bristol, Va., where Mr. Roosevelt will make a brief address. The second stop is Knoxville, Tenn., where he will deliver an address at the Appalachian exposition Oct. 7.

The party next goes to Rome, Ga., where Mr. Roosevelt will address the citizens.

At Atlanta, the next stop, the colonel will make an address before the Uncle Remus Memorial association on the evening of Oct. 8. He will speak at a conservation meeting in the afternoon and be entertained by the mayor of Atlanta at a private dinner.

Leaving Atlanta on Oct. 9, the party arrives at Hot Springs, Ark., where Mr. Roosevelt will be entertained at the Arkansas State fair on Oct. 10. From there the party will go to St. Louis, spending 24 hours under the direction of Governor Hadley and the city and state Republican committees.

A breakfast will be given by the Business Men's league, there will be a luncheon at the Traffic club, and a public address under the auspices of the Republican committee at the Coliseum in the evening.

To Be Guest of Knights of Columbus.
At Peoria Mr. Roosevelt will be the guest of Spaulding council, Knights of Columbus, on Oct. 12, and the arrangements in Indiana, including Indianapolis, are under the direction of Senator Beveridge and the Republican state committee. Mr. Roosevelt will return to New York on the evening of Friday, Oct. 14.

ADDRESSES REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Theodore Roosevelt, addressing the National Republican league, in session at Carnegie hall today, delivered his first address of the state campaign.

He compared the Republican state convention with the Democratic convention now being held at Rochester, and on the strength of his comparison said he felt that the Republicans had the right to appeal to every decent citizen in the state without regard to party, to vote their way.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They cure backache, every kidney ailment.

Here is Ogdens evidence to prove it. James Renzie, 2974 Washington Ave., Ogdens, Utah, says: "Since I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in 1906, I have had no further need of a kidney remedy. The contents of two boxes of this preparation, procured from BADCON'S PHARMACY, effected a complete and permanent cure. For nearly five years I suffered from a constant pain across the small of my back, and through my left side. The kidney secretions were unnatural and irregular in passage and plainly showed that I had kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills went at once to the seat of my trouble and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I induced one of my relatives to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and he afterward informed me that they were the best kidney medicine he had ever taken."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JOHN A. DIX HEADS NEW YORK TICKET

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 30.—John A. Dix of Washington county, was chosen candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket tonight by the conference of leaders, while 400 delegates of the state convention waited two hours in their seats for the formation of the slate.

The chief cause of delay lay in the difficulty of filling second place. Mr. Dix had been selected and the other places on the ticket had been settled to the apparent satisfaction of those who gathered in the rooms of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, earlier in the evening.

Rest of the Slate.
Mr. Dix tonight yielded to the solicitation of the leaders and agreed to run. The rest of the slate was arranged as follows:
Lieutenant governor—Thomas F. Conway of Clinton county.
Comptroller—Martin H. Glynn of

Fortunes are being made in Box Elder County Dry Farms and Orchards

Most Utah people know that Box Elder county farms and orchards are making fortunes for their owners today. It is also a widely known fact that land values and prices in Box Elder county are climbing very fast, and that because the returns from the lands are so great there are very few acres in the older section of the county for sale.

A large section of the county—the western portion—has been developed very little for the reason that private interests controlled the land in such a manner as to retard its development. Some parts of this section have been developed and are today among the most highly productive sections of the state. The two towns, Park Valley and Rosette, have been established several years and the afirms and ranchers are thrifty and prosperous. These towns are in Park Valley, one of the most fertile valleys in the west.

Park Valley Offers Unlimited Opportunities for Orchards, Farms and Ranches

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

An opportunity is now afforded to purchase dry farm and orchard lands in this beautiful valley at very attractive prices. A tract containing 6,000 acres of the very choicest land in the valley has been subdivided into 20, 40, 80 and 160 acre tracts and is now for sale. Experts agree that the land is especially adapted for fruit and dry farm purposes, and the farms surrounding it prove the productiveness of the region.

Here is an exceptional opportunity. The prices asked for these lands now are but a fraction of the value represented when the land is cleared and cultivated. The soil is rich and deep. The climatic conditions are ideal and the precipitation makes it a very favorable dry farm section.

Investigate the possibilities of Park Valley. Determine for yourself the opportunity this offer presents and then prepare to buy a farm and become independent. Excursions run to Park Valley each Tuesday and Thursday. Special rates for parties of ten or more.

Glynn Refuses to Accept.
Mr. Glynn refused to accept the nomination for comptroller and William Sohmer of New York has been substituted in his place. Mr. Conway said he was reluctant to accept the nomination for lieutenant governor.

It was said that he felt his county was too near that of Mr. Dix to make his a logical choice.

Then the leaders left the rooms of Mr. Murphy at 2:30 this morning after a vain effort to agree upon a candidate the majority of them were for Dix. Unanimity of opinion, however, was prevented mainly by Mr. Dix's persistent refusal to run.

"I do not see how I could accept with honor," he declared.

"I am afraid it would leave sore spots all over the state."

Influence Brought to Bear.
Every influence was brought to bear upon the unwilling choice. Several of his relatives, his wife, his brother-in-law and his nephew all of whom were here with him, were sought out and urged to try persuasion.

But when the convention met this afternoon for the first session of the day Mr. Dix was still undecided. Pale and haggard, showing the strain under which he was laboring he called the convention to order. The result of permanent Chairman Herbert P. Bissel, the reading of the platform, the reports of committees and the adoption of the routine resolutions, held the delegates until 3:43, when the convention took a recess until 7:30.

Conference in Murphy's Room.
The conference in Mr. Murphy's room was resumed almost immediately. Four hours later a committee consisting of National Democratic Chairman Mack and John E. McCooy, the Brooklyn leader, left the room and went to Mr. Dix's suite, where they told the chairman that the leaders still held to their opinion that he should run. Then Mr. Dix capitulated.

Within five minutes the committee returned to the conference and announced his decision. Soon himself, Dix came out of his room.

"Yes, you may shake my hand," he said smilingly to those who congratulated him.

"But," he added, "I don't know whether you should congratulate me or not."

Nominations for governor were called for at once. When Albany county was called, its delegates announced that they yielded to Washington.

The home county of John A. Dix, Seymour Van Sant Voord took the platform to put in nomination Mr. Dix. The nomination was seconded by Thomas M. Osborne of Auburn, one of the candidates for the same nomination.

J. William Sanborn nominated William Sulzer of New York. Colonel Alexander Bacon seconded the nomination of Sulzer.

His Independence League.
Colonel Bacon mentioned the Independence league in his speech and this brought a storm of hisses.

"Hiss if you will," he shouted, brandishing his fist.

"Get the hook," yelled a voice in the gallery.

By this time the hall was in an uproar with the chairman rapping vainly for order.

"Keep quiet," urged Colonel Bacon, "and I'll tell you a good story."

Bacon Quiets Crowd With Story.
The crowd accepted the promise and suddenly hushed its noises only to break out afresh when it failed to appreciate the story. Colonel Bacon returned to his seat after talking nearly half an hour to make a speech that without interruption would have lasted but ten minutes. This completed the nominations for governor and the delegates proceeded to vote.

Mr. Dix received 432 to 16 for Sulzer and the nomination of Dix was made unanimous.
